

NAOMI HOBSON

HABITATS OF HOPE

"I have always felt a deep curiosity about the complex links between all living things and how fragile, dependent and balanced our world needs to be.

And so much of what I see exists in its own beauty and power.

My people have always been a part of the balance, we still contribute to it, and we receive its offerings.

For me. This series and each painting is an unveiling of the preciousness of nature's work."
